Progress Software is partners' choice at Channel Network Awards

Vendor wins prestigious channel award for its partner enablement program

Progress Software is pleased to announce that it has won 'Vendor Channel Programme' of the year at the Channel Network Awards, 2008.

The awards took place at the Park Lane Hilton in London, on Thursday, 16 October, 2008. The judges were looking for excellence of overall solutions and specifically how these solutions met customer expectations.

Colleen Smith of Progress Software commented: "The partner programme is integral to the way Progress does business and this recognition reiterates Progress' ongoing commitment to its channel partners. We look forward to continuing to develop our channel and working with Channel Network in 2009."
